META ADS · WEIGHT LOSS CLINICS

ONE LINE THAT GETS YOUR AD REJECTED.

META ADS, EXPLAINED.

"Are you overweight?" breaks Meta's rules. Here's what to write instead.

THE PROBLEM

WEIGHT LOSS ADS FACE SOME OF META'S STRICTEST RULES.

Meta's rules on personal attributes and health mean many weight loss ads get rejected. Clinics lose time, money and sometimes their ad account.

NO 'YOU'	NO PINCH	18+
ATTRIBUTES	CLOSE-UPS	ONLY

1

STEP 1 OF 5

DON'T CALL OUT THEIR BODY.

Ads can't assert or imply a person's health or weight.

'Are you overweight?'

'Struggling with your weight?'

Ad rejected

AFTER

'Our weight loss program'

'Meet our medical team'

Ad approved

2

STEP 2 OF 5

CHOOSE IMAGES CAREFULLY.

Meta rejects close-ups of pinched fat and body-shaming visuals.

BEFORE	AFTER
Pinching belly fat	Real clinic team
Zoom on body parts	Healthy lifestyle
Negative feel	Positive, calm visuals

3

STEP 3 OF 5

NO 'LOSE 10 KG IN 30 DAYS'.

Promising a result in a set timeframe needs disclaimers. Avoid it.

BEFORE	AFTER
Fixed kilo promises	Program explained
Miracle language	Doctor supervision
Clickbait	Results vary

4

STEP 4 OF 5

KNOW THE DRUG RULES.

Prescription weight loss drugs fall under Meta's stricter pharma policy.

BEFORE YOU LAUNCH	KAALA
Audience	18+ ONLY
Copy	NO PERSONAL ATTRIBUTES
Images	NO PINCH CLOSE-UPS
Drugs	PHARMA POLICY CHECKED

5

STEP 5 OF 5

SELL THE CONSULTATION.

Invite people to talk to a doctor, not to buy a quick fix.

BEFORE	AFTER
'Buy now'	Book a consultation
Quick-fix promise	Doctor-led program
Cold traffic	Follow-up in 24h
